GSPRA's Support for the SPARK! Campaign

In the summer of 2014, GSPRA entered into a formal partnership with the Georgia Vision Project (GVP) to support the SPARK! Campaign, an advocacy campaign to celebrate public education in Georgia and to change the perception of our schools by changing the conversation about our schools. The Georgia Vision Project is a joint venture of the Georgia School Boards Association (GSBA) and the Georgia School Superintendents Association (GSSA), formed in 2009 to create a comprehensive and coherent vision for public education in the state of Georgia.

GSPRA has committed time, talent, and resources to support the work of the SPARK! Campaign by providing a "toolkit" with ideas, examples, and inspiration from around the state, including logos, videos, a monthly idea generator for celebrating education, web resources, and examples. The digital SPARK! Campaign Toolkit is housed on the GSPRA website for use by districts around the state, many of which do not have a PR professional on staff. The toolkit includes a mix of statewide promotional pieces (video, print, etc.), promotional planning tools, and inspiring examples from our members.

The toolkit includes the following main elements:

- **The SPARK! logo**... Multiple formats, suggestions for use.
- **Videos**... Videos with positive messages about education, branded with the SPARK! logo, and for use statewide.
- **How to Tell Our Story**... A month-by-month idea generator for celebrating education in our communities. (included)
- **Collection of Related Web Resources**... Links to related materials from state and national organizations, as both resources and inspiration.
- **Examples of Success Stories**... Stories and videos that tell the success stories in our districts. Submitted by GSPRA members, these materials can be used as inspiration as you look for success stories in your own district.

These sections will be refreshed as additional resources are identified and as GSPRA members provide additional examples. In the future, the Toolkit will be expanded to include other tools and examples to support the campaign. Possible items include fact sheets, brochures, sample letters to the editor, sample guest editorial and columns, sample blog post, sample superintendent's message, sample principal's message, key messages and talking points for leaders and key communicators, social media conversation starters, sample radio and television public service announcements (PSAs), sample PowerPoint, and sample SPARK! posters.

Districts are welcome to review the contents of the Toolkit for inspiration. GSPRA members are encouraged to submit materials (videos, stories, print materials, newspaper articles that were pitched, etc.) that illustrate how our schools and districts celebrate public education success stories.

Audience, Role, and Focus

The SPARK! Campaign is designed to highlight academic success stories through public service announcements, billboards, and media coverage. SPARK! aims to stir a students' devotion for learning, to inspire enthusiasm in teachers and to elicit a commitment from parents, business leaders and community members who may not know the best ways to stay active in a child's education. SPARK! facilitates these partnerships with the goal of showcasing the strengths of the Georgia public school systems.

This public education advocacy program is targeted to the general public, particularly families and community members, as well as educators and education leaders, business and civic leaders, and lawmakers and other public decision-makers.

GSPRA's role is to support the advocacy campaign with development and dissemination of new and existing promotional materials and to provide advice and counsel on outreach efforts.

- GSPRA will design and maintain an online toolkit to support the campaign with ideas, examples, and inspiration.
- GSPRA will provide guidance and counsel regarding statewide PSAs and other materials developed for statewide use.
- GSPRA will serve in an advisory capacity to the statewide Georgia Vision Project.
- GSPRA will be an active partner in outreach efforts to form additional partnerships.

GSPRA's collaboration with the Georgia Vision Project promotes advocacy for public education in our state, and supports the development of beneficial relationships among organizations that advocate for our schools. The overall focus of the campaign is to build support and trust for our schools, focusing on the success of our students, staff, and schools. This focus dovetails perfectly with the NSPRA mission.

Activities and Timeline

Planning:

GSPRA developed a communications plan for the SPARK! Campaign in the fall, previewing the plan with Dr. Stan DeJarnett, GVP executive director, in September, and revisiting the plan (included) in March for updates and additions. Based on the meeting in spring, additional materials (alternate logo, posters) are in development (samples included). GSPRA has committed to ongoing support for the campaign.

Toolkit:

In support of the campaign, GSPRA members have submitted more than 75 items to the Toolkit to date. Additional items will be added on an ongoing basis, both examples submitted by GSPRA members and materials produced by GSPRA specifically in support of the campaign (videos, posters, etc.).

Presentations:

Tim Hensley, APR, GSPRA's liaison to the GVP Advisory Board, along with GSPRA President Laura Nurse, APR, and Past President Sloan Roach made a presentation (included) to superintendents and school board members at the winter conference of the Georgia School Boards Association (GSBA) and the Georgia School Superintendents Association (GSSA) on Dec. 4. In addition, Laura presented on the Toolkit to the GVP Advisory Board meeting in December. Tim will represent GSPRA and present an update on the Toolkit at the summer GSBA/GSSA Conference in June.

Partnerships:

GSPRA's SPARK! Campaign committee is chaired by Tim Hensley, APR, GSPRA's liaison to the GVP Advisory Board. Tim and GSPRA President Laura Nurse, APR, represent GSPRA on the GVP Advisory Board.

Dr. DeJarnett has been a presenter at the GSPRA conference in both 2013 and 2014. In addition to providing materials and expertise, GSPRA made a financial contribution of $250 to support the promotional campaign.

In January, Laura met with Dr. DeJarnett, GSBA's Justin Pauley (a GSPRA member), and representatives from Positive Athlete Georgia about a collaboration involving SPARK! Positive Athlete is the state affiliate of a growing national group that promotes positive school climate and culture. Positive Athlete has since entered into a formal partnership with GVP.

Since GSPRA became a partner with GVP in promoting the SPARK! Campaign, the list of partners has grown to 41 associations, agencies, and organizations, and more partners are joining all the time.

Other:

Campaign PSAs have run on GPB-TV (PBS), with 30-second videos featuring Georgia's Teachers of the Year have run on both the standard GPB network and the GPB Creates network. And, 15-second audio PSAs about the Georgia Vision Project have run on GPB's radio network. The TV PSAs also are running on two local network TV stations, reaching more than 813,000 Georgia citizens monthly. The PSAs were developed by GVP in partnership with an outside agency, and financial and creative support of partner organizations, including GSPRA.

SPARK! Campaign USB drives were provided to participants at the GSSA Spring Bootstrap Conference. The drives contain all relevant SPARK! public service announcement videos, Rewrite the Story (provided by a GSPRA member district), Talking Points about the positives happening in Georgia's public schools, and other messaging tools local school systems can adapt to fit their local needs.

March 18, 2015 Update SPARK Planning Meeting: Dr. Stan DeJarnett (GVP), Laura Nurse, APR (GCP&S and GSPRA), and Tim Hensley (Floyd and GSPRA)

Challenges

- Need to resell constantly because of turnover among superintendents and board members.
- Fourth year of GVP and most lawmakers are unaware of the project, messaging, etc.
- Partners are not sharing GVP and related messages with their members.
- Large organizations expect to lead discussion by virtue of size, but aren't stepping up (may need direction to focus their energies)
- Partners have initiatives and messages of their own, so not spending time/energy to promote a shared message

Opportunities

- GSSA
  - GSSA conference (April 19 Bootstrap)... Thumb drive for all superintendents with collateral from GVP, PSAs, Toolkit materials
- GSPRA
  - Blast to GSPRA members in mid-April, Ask your superintendents about materials received at Bootstrap
- New website
  - Google analytics on new website (bring installed now)

      - Cost of $2,000 per month, paid through May
  - GPB
    - 15-second radio spot (GVP-provided script, read by on-air announcer in stations in statewide network at no cost)

  - Develop common messages around themes
  - Start focus on themes of Teaching and Learning and Culture and Climate
- Shared promotional pieces
  - Craft general promotional pieces for identified themes
  - Pieces would tie SPARK/GVP together (a campaign of the GVP with website and/or QR code)
  - Pieces could be standalone (with statewide theme) or include room for partner organization/district logo and name
  - Items would be in ready-to-use format but could be customized
  - Possibly provide suggestions for ways to customize
  - Initial items might include:
    - Promotional guide (how-to for using materials, with suggestions)
    - Advertisements (different sizes)
    - Posters

    - Sample letter to the editor
    - Sample guest editorial tied to calendar
    - Sample social media tied to calendar
    - Sample PowerPoint for use with business and community
    - Packaged infographics
    - Talking points flyer
- Social Media Campaign
  - Facebook/Twitter (GSBA currently handles)
  - Consider asking students (UGA PR program) to develop a social media campaign
  - Use SM to engage internal/external audiences
  - Use (or expand on) existing calendar
  - Possibly have SM-savvy members of partners be part of a working group that manages the campaign
  - Ask partner groups to help promote and participate in SM campaigns using shared hashtags (ex., #GaSPARK, #SPARKeducation, #SPARK-EDinGA)
  - Coordinate tweets/retweets to keep SM conversations going
  - Gather results and share (Storify and other platforms)
- Visual presence
  - Consider value of a single logo
- Possible shared tagline and variations for partners
  - Teachers + Leaders + Innovation = Success

Sparking Support for Georgia's Public Schools

Using GSPRA's SPARK! Campaign Toolkit to Promote Public Education in Georgia

The Georgia School Public Relations Association (GSPRA) is partnering with the Georgia Vision Project to support the SPARK! campaign, an advocacy campaign to celebrate public education in Georgia and to change the perception of our schools by changing the conversation about our schools. GSPRA—the professional organization for the state's school PR practitioners—is the “voice” for public education in Georgia. GSPRA has committed the time, talent, and resources of its 90+ members to support the work of the SPARK! Campaign.

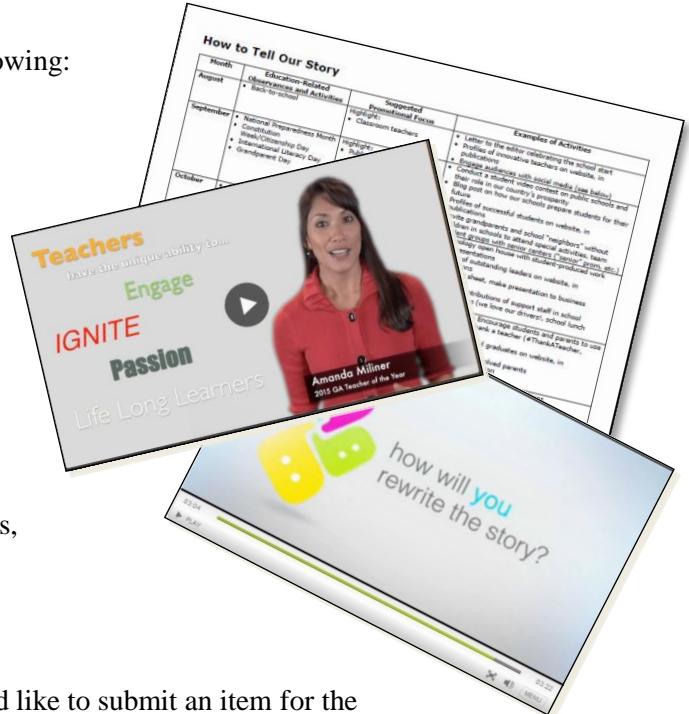

With this campaign, we will focus on the successes of our graduates, the inspired work of our teachers, and the support of our communities for their schools. We will do that through real data and stories about how public schools all over our state are stepping up to the challenge of preparing our students for college, career and life.

To support the campaign, GSPRA has developed a SPARK! Campaign Toolkit which will be maintained on the GSPRA website. The Toolkit is filled with ideas, examples, and inspiration from around the state. <http://gspra.org/SPARKtoolkit>

In the toolkit, you will find a number of elements, including the following:

- ▶ The SPARK! logo... Multiple formats, suggestions for use.
- ▶ Videos... Videos with positive messages about education, branded with the SPARK! logo, and for use statewide.
- ▶ How to Tell Our Story... A month-by-month idea generator for celebrating education in our communities.
- ▶ Collection of Related Web Resources... Links to related materials from state and national organizations.
- ▶ Examples of Success Stories... Stories and videos that tell the success stories in our districts. Submitted by GSPRA members, these materials can be used as inspiration as you look for success stories in your own district.

If you have a suggestion for something that is needed or if you would like to submit an item for the Toolkit, let us know! Send your suggestion or submission to sparktoolkit@gmail.com.

GREAT TEACHERS + STRONG LEADERS + INNOVATION = SUCCESS!

Did You Know?

More than 1.7 million (92%) of Georgia's school age children attend one of our state's 2,200+ public schools. These young people are our state's future workforce - our future entrepreneurs, artists, scientists, lawyers, researchers, teachers and civic leaders.

On Achievement:

1. The latest U.S. high school graduation rate of 81% is the highest in the history of public education in this country and it's up 8 percentage points from just six years ago. We are on track to reach 90% by 2020. Georgia is making strides, with an average graduation rate of 72.5%, up 5.1 percentage points from just three years ago.
2. Our state's flagship research universities boast that their entrance standards increase every year for entering freshmen. Did you know that more than 80% of the in-state freshmen enrolled at the University of Georgia graduated from a Georgia public high school?
3. In Georgia, 1 in 4 public high school juniors and seniors took at least one Advanced Placement (AP®) Exam in 2014, up from 1 in 10 a decade ago. Our more rigorous standards have given more students access to college-level coursework all over Georgia. As a result, Georgia public school students are earning college credit and advanced placement in college classes in record numbers.

On Teachers:

1. More than 112,000 teachers serve in Georgia public schools.
2. 2 in 3 (67%) hold an advanced degree in their field.
3. Across Georgia, school systems are enhancing their staffs with teachers who have completed alternative preparation programs. These teachers come from distinguished careers in other areas – business, technology, military service, medicine – and bring a wealth of experiences to our classrooms.

On Leaders:

1. Strong, stable leadership in our public schools have led to improved student performance and elevated community trust and support. This leadership has resulted in national recognition such as Gwinnett's 2014 Broad Prize and the Clarke's 2015 National Superintendent of the Year.
2. Strong board/superintendent partnerships have distributed leadership to local school governance teams, improving parent and community engagement. Fulton County, Decatur City and Marietta City Schools are three metro Atlanta systems that have promoted local school governance through the Charter System model.
3. Georgia school systems grow future school and system leaders through strong professional development and leadership programs, for example, Gwinnett's Quality Plus Leadership Program.

On Innovation:

1. Public schools all over Georgia are innovating. We teach courses such as computer programming and Mandarin Chinese, and have robotics labs in schools all over the state. Not just high schools - we have those same innovative programs at all levels – primary, elementary and middle schools.
2. Currently, 337 charter schools are currently operating in Georgia, including community start-ups as well as public schools that have voluntarily opted for charter school and/or charter system status.
3. More than 21,600 students are enrolled in the Georgia Virtual School, an online learning community. This number increases every year.
4. Georgia is one of only 20 states nationwide that have adopted graduation requirements consistent with the American Diploma Project's definition of college and career ready, and one of a handful of states in the country that requires four years of both math and science for graduation from our public schools.

BOTTOM LINE:

Public schools are an essential cornerstone of every community. Our schools are as necessary to the well-being of our communities as utilities, public safety and healthcare. Strong public schools make strong communities, and strong community support makes successful schools.

Logo Redesign (Ongoing)

At a planning session for GVP/SPARK in March, we talked about logos and branding for the initiative. Right now, SPARK and GVP have competing logos that do not tie SPARK to GVP.

For the work that GVP has asked GSPRA to do (template design to use for ads, posters, billboards, etc.), a replacement logo has been developed for SPARK that brings it all together.

For campaign promotional pieces, we would use the tagline of Teachers + Leaders + Innovation = Success (or a variation for Music Teachers, Science Teachers, etc., for partners).

The GSPRA SPARK! Committee recommends that GVP use its new logo (above) on the GVP website and for GVP-specific work. The new SPARK logo would be used for the promotional campaign. It includes reference back to GVP in the logo itself.

SUGGESTED LOGO OPTIONS

Below are two versions in two formats. The first is the format for use on a white background, and the second is for use on a color background.

VERSION 1: Keeps the triangular "ray" element from SPARK and the font, maroon and gray colors, and "book" element from GVP.

VERSION 2: Keeps the triangular "ray" element from SPARK and the font and colors from GVP. It replaces the "book" element with a similar element representing a spark.
